Art Unit: 1614

Claims 23-26 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on June 21, 2004 have been received and entered.

Claims 23-26 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112 first paragraph for the reasons set forth on pages 2 and 3 of the office action of March 22, 2004.

Claims 23-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by Goldin et al. for the reasons set forth on page 3 of the office action of January 29, 2003.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, but are not deemed to be persuasive. The claims of the instant application are drawn to the prevention of retinal cell death with 'a composition'. The instant specification fails to provide a written description of all the compositions, which would prevent the retinal ganglion cell death. When claims are drawn this broadly, they are inclusive of any composition, which can be a small molecule, a peptide, a peptide mimetics, a protein or RNA-DNA-based structures; no identifying characteristics of any kind, e.g. sequences, are provided. Accordingly, the instant specification fails to provide an adequate written description of a composition, which evokes a biological mechanism, which does not modulate aqueous humor dynamics and intraocular pressure. Claims 23-26 also do not provide support for the prevention of retinal ganglion cell death for the reasons discussed previously. Applicant's arguments regarding the 102 (b) are not also well taken. Applicant's attention again is drawn to Ex Pate Novitski illustrating anticipation resulting from inherent use.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1614

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
